Descripción de la propiedad

This 3-bedroom, 4.5-bathroom home in Lucero was designed by architect Rene Bacil and built by a U.S. contractor in 2015. The house sits on a 3,584 m² lot and has a total interior space of 443.6 m² with views of the Chiriquí lowlands and Pacific islands. Interior Layout and Features All three bedrooms have ensuite bathrooms. The upper-floor main bedroom measures 33 m² and features sliding doors that open onto both front and rear terraces. It also includes a walk-in closet and a bathroom with two sinks, a soaking tub, and a rain shower. The kitchen is equipped with Italian Scavolini cabinetry, platinum silestone countertops, and appliances from KitchenAid and Samsung, including a beverage center. There is a large pantry with a second refrigerator and a laundry room with front-loading Samsung machines. Spanish porcelain tile flooring is used throughout the house, garage, and storage rooms.
