Descripción de la propiedad

3-bedroom home located on Calle Maracuyá, 625 meters from the road to La Pintada and close to "Turicentro Los Uveros," This property sits in the Corregimiento of Cañaveral, District of Penonomé, Coclé. The house is on a mostly flat lot measuring 2,250.52 square meters, fully fenced. The property includes a covered parking space for one vehicle. Inside, you'll find an open layout that combines the living room, dining area, and kitchen. The kitchen has a breakfast bar that separates it from the dining area. A glass door from the main area leads to a terrace that offers mountain views. The house has three bedrooms and three bathrooms, plus a larger, second terrace area that provides additional outdoor space. The property is equipped with water and electricity connections, along with water reserve tanks. This property is well-located in a quiet area, close to mountains and several beaches, including Riu, Playa Blanca, Bijao, and Decameron. It is also near the archaeological site of El Caño and the town of La Pintada. Essential amenities such as supermarkets, schools, a university, and the regional hospital are nearby. The property benefits from a property tax exemption until March 9, 2036
