Descripción de la propiedad

Located just a 10-minute drive from downtown, this lush property in Cambutal is now available for sale. These farms offer great potential for various projects, including residential and tourism-related ones. The property has undergone reforestation efforts and now boasts a beautiful forest-like setting. Several water sources can be found on the property, including a small stream. Access to power is relatively close to this property. Additionally, a small rancho and a water-catching system have been constructed on the property. It's important to note that the property is titled.
