$150,000

Descripción de la propiedad

Now available for sale is this unique clifftop beachfront property in Horcones, Cambutal. This property sits on the main road to the famous surf break, Corto Circuito, where you can enjoy epic long waves for most of the year, especially during summer. This property sits on a rock cliff formation with enough building space to create a gorgeous ocean-view home. The lot features mature trees that enhance the natural landscape. The property currently doesn't have electricity access. As expats are gradually moving to this area, it's only a matter of time before the power company extends the lines here. There is no water service, but drilling a well is a viable option as the area has abundant underground water sources. This property is titled.
