Descripción de la propiedad

This 2.1-hectare (21,133 m²) titled property is located in Casita de Piedra, Caldera, a peaceful rural area in the district of Boquete, Chiriquí. Just about 30 minutes from the nearest paved road via a maintained gravel road, this farm offers privacy, mountain views, and fertile land in a naturally rich environment. Fenced Property with a Creek, Water Access & Basic Structure The property is fully fenced and features a small gate at the entrance. A small seasonal creek borders one side of the lot, and there is an existing connection to water from a nearby river, providing a natural source for irrigation. Conditions also allow for the possibility of drilling a well for potable water, if desired. A small 25 m² concrete block building (approximately 5.4 m x 5.6 m), with a concrete floor, metal roof, two doors, and four windows, offers a simple structure that can serve as storage or an initial shelter.
