Descripción de la propiedad

Discover refined coastal living in the charming town of San José, one of the most peaceful and desirable local communities along Panama's Pacific coast. Located just 5 minutes from Coronado, this elegant residence offers the perfect balance of privacy, comfort, and convenient access to restaurants, shopping, banks, clinics, and hospitals. Built in 2022, the home sits on a generous 692.57 m² lot and features 108 m² of thoughtfully designed construction with modern finishes and high-quality materials throughout. The residence offers 2 spacious bedrooms and 2 bathrooms, complemented by a bright open-concept living and dining area, a modern kitchen, dedicated laundry area, and covered garage parking. Large double-glazed tempered glass windows with screens allow abundant natural light while maintaining comfort and energy efficiency. The home is equipped with air conditioning units, a water heater, and a security alarm system, providing both comfort and peace of mind. Step outside to your private terrace and swimming pool, where you can relax while enjoying the tranquil surroundings. The beautifully landscaped garden with an automatic irrigation system enhances the outdoor living experience, creating a serene tropical retreat. The entire property is fully fenced with solid walls and gates, ensuring privacy and security. Additional features include a private water well, a valuable asset that adds reliability and independence to the property.
