Descripción de la propiedad

Located at the top of Jaramillo Loop Road in Boquete, Panama, this property offers exceptional views of Volcan Baru. Sitting on a 4,318-square-meter lot, the 201.63 sqm main house, 30 sqm casita, and 156 sqm barn/workshop provide ample space for both living and storage. The entire property is fully fenced. Upon entering the main house, you'll find a spacious double-height living area featuring a stone fireplace and large windows that bring in plenty of natural light. The wooden ceiling enhances the airy, open feel of the space. The kitchen features a central breakfast island and wooden cabinetry, designed for convenience and functionality. The master bedroom includes built-in wooden closets and opens directly into the private garden, where a unique outdoor shower area and spider orchids add natural beauty. The master bathroom features a jetted tub, ideal for relaxation. The second bedroom also features built-in closets and includes a wine rack for added storage. The home has a laundry room, two-car parking area, and a terrace that offers beautiful views of the surrounding mountains. The 1-bedroom, 1-bathroom casita currently serves as an office but can easily be transformed into a guest house or independent living space. It includes a kitchenette, a bathroom with a shower, and a private entrance. Additional features of the property include a greenhouse, barn/workshop, tool storage area, and a water purification center with an underground storage tank. This property has everything you need for a self-sufficient lifestyle. Designed and built in 2005 by renowned Boquete architect René Bacil.
