Descripción de la propiedad

If you're looking for a completely private property which has been reforested for the past 20 years ago and is close to the beaches in the Pacific ocean, you need to go no further. The 81 acres is located in San Carlos approximately a 20-minutes drive from Coronado and a short drive to Altos del Maria. There are approximately 30,000 trees that were been planted more than two decades ago and are more than 50 feet tall. Among the trees that have been planted are pine, oak, teak, and different kinds of fruit trees. The natural forest that exists within the property has been preserved. Because of the reforestation, the property is cooler than the surrounding area and a multitude of bird species have made it their home. From the main entrance of the property there is a block made path that takes you to the cabin and the open-floor house with a wrap around terrace. The cabin has an antique feel to it - an serene place to retreat yourself within a natural setting. There are waterfalls in the property which makes it very unique. One of them is over 10 feet tall with a natural pool down below. The property also has electricity.
