Descripción de la propiedad

This 2,035 m² oceanview lot in Canas, Panama offers a rare mix of privacy, natural beauty, and surf access—all just 15 minutes from Playa Venao. Perched above the Pacific with panoramic views of the coastline, estuary, and rolling hills, the land is ideally suited for building a luxury home or eco-retreat that blends with the landscape. The lot is located in a small hillside community with several high-end homes already built, and electricity is available on-site. The gentle slope offers excellent drainage and unobstructed views, while the surrounding terrain ensures a sense of privacy and immersion in nature. Watch the sun set over the ocean each evening, wake to the sound of howler monkeys, and enjoy direct access to nearby surf breaks that are still largely uncrowded. Just a short drive from the amenities and buzz of Playa Venao, Canas offers a more laid-back, residential atmosphere without sacrificing convenience. Ideal for buyers seeking a quiet setting with development potential in one of Panama's fastest-growing coastal regions. Whether you're planning a personal residence, vacation getaway, or investment home, this lot delivers long-term value in a setting that's as peaceful as it is visually striking.
