Descripción de la propiedad

The owner of this house decided to name her estate "My Other Life" as a tribute to her journey from the big city of New Orleans to the countryside of Panama. The house has been completely renovated from floor to ceiling, including a new bathroom and kitchen. The main entrance to the property has white walls and a very pretty iron gate. There is a beautiful tree right at the entrance to the property that provides plenty of shade, perfect for parking your car under it, or just sitting under its leafy canopy. The house has four bedrooms, one with an office, and two bathrooms. The open-concept kitchen has plenty of cabinetry and a nice breakfast bar, perfect for entertaining family and guests. Laundry facilities are located on the large deck at the back of the house. There is a nice bohio on one side of the house, and the caretaker's house is very nice. The owners are dog lovers and have built a nice covered area for their dogs at the back of the house. Part of the property is fenced around the main house so the dogs can run freely. The rest of the property remains open. At the rear of the nearly 1.3-acre (5,275 m2) lot runs the Teta River, which gives its name to the famous Teta Beach, an ideal beach with great waves for surfers. The property has many mature fruit trees, including mango, papaya, and lemon trees. You truly feel like you're in the middle of an oasis. This property is located in Costa Esmeralda, just 2-3 km from Coronado, but in a very quiet area.
