Descripción de la propiedad

Amidst the infinite blue waters of Panama lies Ocean Reef Panama, a unique residential complex with the Pacific Ocean as its backdrop. Within this exclusive enclave stands a majestic residence that perfectly fuses art and design. Inspired by the stunning location and the owner's passion for art, Janine Schneider of the Costa Rican firm JSARQ crafted interiors that are visually striking, serene, and welcoming. The penthouse reflects the owners' lifestyle, featuring spacious social areas for entertaining and quiet corners for relaxation. Gallery-like lighting highlights the art pieces, turning them into focal points. Natural materials such as marble, terrazzo, and wood, combined with exposed concrete, create a balanced aesthetic that connects the design to nature. Personalized details and custom-made pieces by JSARQ add a unique touch, making this residence a masterpiece that invites you to live in it. For more information, please contact us.
