Descripción de la propiedad

This property is located in Las Nubes, a small town nestled in the scenic mountains of Cerro Punta in the Chiriqui Province of Panama. This charming location is known for its cool, crisp mountain air, lush greenery, and breathtaking views of the surrounding landscape. The lot spans over 5 hectares and 6,503 square meters of titled property, making it a substantial piece of land to fulfill your agricultural dreams. The property also includes an additional 2 hectares and 5,751.11 square meters of land with a right to use, providing ample space for your farming needs. The land is ideal for agriculture with its rich soil, excellent for growing various crops such as coffee, fruits, and vegetables. Additionally, the two natural water springs on the property provide a fresh source of water, likely ideal for irrigation purposes, making this property an excellent investment opportunity for agricultural enthusiasts. The property boasts a flat terrain with a gentle slope.
