Descripción de la propiedad

Located in the peaceful community of Palmira, this beautiful flat property offers more than 1 acre of fully usable land surrounded by lush green areas and mature mango trees that provide shade, character, and a true countryside feel. The property features access to electricity and water, and is easily reached by a well-maintained gravel road, making it both private and convenient. Its level topography makes it ideal for building a main residence, expanding gardens, or creating additional structures. There is also a charming one-bedroom casita on the property that can be remodeled and transformed into a comfortable guest house, rental unit, or caretaker's quarters. Set in a quiet and serene area, this is a wonderful opportunity for those seeking space, tranquility, and natural beauty while still being within easy reach of town.
