Descripción de la propiedad

Pacific Eco Island Sanctuary: A Hidden Jewel in Darién's Paradise Nestled in the serene waters of the Darién Province, Isla Corozal offers an exclusive opportunity to own a stunning 18.65-hectare titled private island. Titled since 1911, this pristine property is located just 6 km by sea from La Palma, the provincial capital with essential government services. Isla Corozal boasts freshwater access and captivating 360° views from its elevated vantage points, making it a dream destination for eco-tourism or private retreat development. The island is ideally positioned near the Reserva Patiño, a 30,000-hectare RAMSAR-recognized sanctuary renowned for its vibrant birdwatching opportunities.
