Descripción de la propiedad

Where the Land Produces and Dreams Take Shape: Great Investment Opportunity Near the Costa Rica Border We present this spectacular 5-hectare property with 535 meters of frontage, located in a strategic area very close to the Costa Rica border. This estate offers a perfect combination of lush nature, agricultural productivity, and high potential for tourism and commercial development. With its rolling topography and breathtaking panoramic views, the land is ideal for building eco-cabins, tourist centers, or residential projects. It features paved road access, along with potable water, internet, and basic services, ensuring comfort and connectivity. The property is surrounded by fruit and timber trees, and crossed by natural streams, creating a fertile, fresh, and welcoming environment. It is currently planted with coffee in full production, and also has areas cultivated with corn and plantains, providing a great opportunity for immediate agricultural income and a solid base for agro-industrial ventures. Thanks to its privileged location, natural beauty, and resource diversity, this property is a true gem with a vision for the future, ideal for those looking to invest in a sustainable, profitable project in harmony with the land. Invest where nature works with you. Contact us for more information or schedule your visit today.
